

ASIP Robbins Distinguished Educator Award Application

Deadline for Nominations: October 31, 2018

Eligible candidates for the ASIP Robbins Distinguished Educator Award must meet the following requirements:

1. Be an ASIP member in good standing at least 5 years prior to the time of nomination.
2. Show evidence of sustained and significant contributions made to pathology and include contributions made to ASIP in the letter of recommendation.

The selected awardee will be presented with this award at the ASIP 2020 Annual Meeting at Experimental Biology in San Diego, CA (April 4-8, 2020).

IMPORTANT: Applications submitted for consideration for the ASIP Robbins Distinguished Educator Award MUST include:

- The Nominee's curriculum vitae, including a complete bibliography
- Three letters of recommendation, including at least two from current ASIP members

Part 1: CANDIDATE INFORMATION

Full Name: _____

Degree(s): _____

Title: _____

Institution: _____

Email: _____

Work Phone: _____

PART 2: PRIMARY NOMINATOR INFORMATION

Full Name: _____

Degree(s): _____

Title: _____

Institution: _____

Email: _____

Work Phone: _____

Is your Primary Nominator an active ASIP member? YES NO

SECOND NOMINATOR

Full Name: _____

Degree(s): _____

Title: _____

Institution: _____

Email: _____

Work Phone: _____

Is your Second Nominator an active ASIP member? YES NO

THIRD NOMINATOR

Full Name: _____

Degree(s): _____

Title: _____

Institution: _____

Email: _____

Work Phone: _____

Is your Third Nominator an active ASIP member? YES NO

Once your application form has been submitted, you will be prompted to attach your supporting documents. Please attach the following: three letters of recommendation, candidate's CV, and complete bibliography.

If you have any questions, please email the Awards Administrator at awards@asip.org.

SUBMIT