ASIP Companion Meeting at USCAP – Past Meetings

2009 ASIP Companion Meeting
Sunday, March 8, 2009 1:30PM
Molecular Pathology for the Practicing Pathologist
Moderators: Maria J. Merino, National Cancer Institute, Bethesda, MD
Julian Sanz-Ortega, Hospital Clinico San Carlos, Madrid, Spain

• The future of the pap smear screening in the era of molecular diagnostics and vaccines
  Mark H. Stoler, University of Virginia Health System

• Recent advances in the molecular pathology of lung cancer: role of EGFR and KRAS mutation testing in treatment selection
  Marc Ladanyi, Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, New York, NY

• The role of miRNAs in cancer diagnosis and prognosis: no small matter
  Marina Nikiforova, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA

• Integrating morphology and molecular pathology to manage the diagnosis and treatment of colon cancer
  Julian Sanz-Ortega, Hospital Clinico San Carlos, Madrid, Spain