JMD CME PROGRAM IN MOLECULAR DIAGNOSTICS

ACCESS INSTRUCTIONS

The JMD 2015 CME Program in Molecular Diagnostics is an annual program consisting of a series of at least 36 questions based on selected articles in the January - November 2015 issues (Volume 17, Numbers 1-6) of The Journal of Molecular Diagnostics (JMD). Bimonthly exams, consisting of at least 6 questions, based on selected articles appearing in each bimonthly issue of the Journal will be available online for your usage beginning January 1, 2015.

To receive CME credit for this journal-based CME activity, participants must achieve a score of at least 75% on a bimonthly exam and complete a Post-Test Evaluation. All exams must be completed by December 31, 2015 to receive CME credit. Participants will earn 6 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™ for successful completion of each bimonthly exam. You may obtain PDF copies of the bimonthly exam questions on the ASIP website (http://www.asip.org/CME/JMD_2015.cfm).

The CME Accreditation Statement and full information about our Disclosure Policy are also available online at http://www.asip.org/CME/JMD_2014.cfm.

SAM Credit
The JMD 2015 CME Program in Molecular Diagnostics is approved by the American Board of Pathology for 36 SAM credits. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. After successfully completing the bimonthly CME exams as described above, participants may separately apply for SAM credit by completing a SAM application (attached). The SAM application can also be found on the ASIP website (http://www.asip.org/CME/JMD_2015.cfm). All SAM applications must be completed by December 31, 2015 for participants to receive SAM credit.

To start participating in this program, registration on HealthAdvance is required. Instructions on creating a HealthAdvance account are noted below.

HEALTHADVANCE: PERSONALIZING YOUR JOURNAL EXPERIENCE FOR THE JMD CME PROGRAM IN MOLECULAR DIAGNOSTICS

HealthAdvance is the name of Elsevier’s platform that houses the journal homepages for scientific society members. Creating or signing into your HealthAdvance account will enable you to customize your experience, including saving searches, saving articles to a personal reading list, and creating citation alerts (email alerts to notify you when a specific article is cited). Journal CME programs can ONLY be accessed via your HealthAdvance account.

To Register on HealthAdvance/Registration for the JMD CME Program in Molecular Diagnostics:

1. Go to the Journal homepage:
   - You can reach the Journal homepage via the ASIP website Member Access Portal or AMP website Member Access Portal. (THIS IS THE PREFERRED METHOD BECAUSE THE ELSEVIER SYSTEM WILL RECOGNIZE YOU AS AN AMP MEMBER AND THAT WILL GIVE YOU FULL CONTENT ACCESS TO THE JOURNAL WITHOUT TAKING EXTRA STEPS LATER.)
   - AMP MEMBERS
     1. AMP website homepage www.amp.org; Click on “Sign In” on the top navigation bar to the Member Access Portal
2. Or go directly to the member login page at https://secure.amp.org/login.cfm

3. Login with your AMP User ID and password. Contact amp@amp.org if you do not remember your AMP User ID.

4. After you are logged in, you will see “JMD Online Access” on the Main Menu. Click and you will be taken automatically to the Journal homepage and you should be welcomed as an AMP member.

ASIP MEMBERS

1. ASIP website homepage www.asip.org; Click on “ASIP Member Access” on the top navigation bar

2. Or go directly to the member login page at https://asip.memberclicks.net/

3. Login with your ASIP User ID and password. Contact asip@asip.org if you do not remember your ASIP User ID.

4. After you are logged in, select “Member Benefits” and in the dropdown select “Journal Access Instructions.” To the right you will the covers for AJP and JMD. If you click on either of them you will be taken automatically to the Journal homepage and you should be welcomed as an ASIP member without further login requirements.

Or you can bypass the AMP or ASIP websites and reach the Journal homepage for The Journal of Molecular Diagnostics directly at http://jmd.amjpathol.org

2. Once you are on the JMD HealthAdvance webpage, select “Register” from the journal banner bar (at the right top of the page).

1. Select Register and Activate Your Subscription.

2. You will be asked to enter in your email address.

3. Select Register an Account from the radio buttons beneath, and hit Continue.

   Note: If you have used this email address to register anywhere on HealthAdvance (formerly HealthConnect) (i.e. for any journal published through Elsevier), the system will recognize your email address, and ask you to log in. You cannot create multiple accounts using the same email address. If you have forgotten your password, you can click on the option for HealthAdvance to send you a temporary password so that you can continue.

   If you have not used this email address to previously register for any Elsevier journal, you will be brought to a page that says Register a New Account. Fill out your profile information, and click the green REGISTER button at the bottom of the page. The profile must be completed in order for Elsevier to activate your account.

   If you HAVE previously registered with an Elsevier journal and would like to review and update your profile, this is a good time to do it!
4. After you have created your HealthAdvance account using the same email address as that on file with AMP or ASIP, please wait a few days for the CME registration to be linked to your HealthAdvance account.

   - HealthAdvance profiles are checked weekly for CME registrants, and are linked automatically. This process takes place between ASIP and Elsevier, and does not require any further action on your part.

   - You can check the status of your CME registration by logging into your HealthAdvance account (on http://jmd.amjpathol.org), clicking on “My Account” and selecting the Subscriptions tab. Once your CME registration has been linked to your account, you will see the Journal CME program listed under your Subscriptions.

5. Once you see the Journal CME program listed under your Subscriptions, you now have access to the online CME program. To access tests, select JMD CME from the CME pull-down menu at the top of the journal website, and then select the test you wish to take. This will take you to the CME platform. Please note that the CME program is accessed only through the HealthAdvance Journal website; it is not available on the ScienceDirect Journal website, which is for institutional subscribers and not designed to provide scientific society special benefits.

   - IMPORTANT: If this is your first visit to the Journal CME platform, you will be asked to provide CME profile information. This information is separate from the profile you created on HealthAdvance, and will be used in issuing CME certificates.

   - If you do not see the Journal CME program listed under your Subscriptions, your account has not yet been linked to your CME registration. If more than one week has elapsed since you created your HealthAdvance profile, please contact the ASIP Education Department (journalcme@asip.org) so that we can resolve the problem.

6. Please remember that you have until December 31, 2015 to complete any bi-monthly CME exams and receive CME credit for 2015. Since it takes at least a few days to get registered in the system, please activate your access to the JMD CME Program in Molecular Diagnostics now.

7. Please contact the ASIP Education Department (journalcme@asip.org) or (301) 634-7440 if you have any questions regarding your account set up or accessing the exams.
